by the author of "The Island of Regeneration"—coming to the opera house. Adv.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Hollister of South street have returned from a short vacation spent in New York and Philadelphia.

Mrs. Johnathan Morse of North street has left for North Adams where she will spend the winter with her son, Alfred Morse.

The new monthly publication to be issued November 1st by the students of the Bennington high school will be known as "The Catamount."

Miss Lena Allard has resigned her position with the tea room on Main street and accepted a place for the winter with Mrs. S. B. Hall in Old Bennington.

Miss Lucy Stoppello, formerly of Depot street, has sent announcements to her kaffian friends in the village of her forthcoming marriage in Troy next week.

... been received from Ernest E. Bottom and John Ewell that they spent the past week in Colorado where they climbed Pike's Peak.
They will leave Monday for the coast, pending next week at the exposition.

An article in Thursday's Banner regarding the five charter members of Mt. Anthony Chapter, O. E. S., should have included the names of John Norton, Mrs. Charles Kimball, Mrs. Harriet Bradford, Mrs. Electa Murphy and Mrs. Frances Williams.
Through a typographical error three of the names were omitted.

Jesse T. Carpenter, who has been confined to his bed for the past three weeks, is improved and able to be about. Last evening he received a delegation of Odd Fellows at his home, who brought him a generous contribution of the famous Odd Fellow chowder enjoyed by the local lodge at their social and chowder supper last evening.

Walter Bignall, who has been in the employ of L. C. Holton on School street for the past six or seven months was given a farewell surprise party Thursday evening by about 25 of his friends. Mr. Bignall will return to his former home in Great Barrington the first of next week.
Cards furnished the entertainment of the evening and refreshments were served.

A peculiar fact in relation to the European war reflected in Bennington comes in a letter written to Edward Telford, a foreman in the EZ waist plant, who has a brother fighting with the allies in northern France. Mr. Telford's brother has fought for 365 days in some of the most severe battles of the western front and came through without a scratch. Mr. Telford writes that he has had so many men shot next to him in the trenches that he is firmly convinced that he bears a charmed life. He is now on furlough visiting his home in Ireland.
